AND APACHE NEWS

Vol. 23.

ST. JOHNS, APACHE CO., ARIZONA, OCTOBER 25, 1906.

No. 7

The reports come in that the Festa at Concho on the 24th inst. was one of the most interesting and entertaining occasions ever had on the annual feast day.

Hereafter if the canned meat is not good just eat the label. It is all right.—Florida Times Union.

The public schools of the County, which have opened up their terms, are doing fine work and all the parties interested in this line of improvement are to be congratulated on the success, which seems to be assured now for the school terms.

Our democratic friends, candidates on the democratic ticket in the present campaign, Messrs. Fred T. Colter, Stansell Greer, J. B. Richey, and W. A. Maxwell, have been welcome callers at this office, this week, while in town to shake hands with the people of this community. As the editor has political troubles of his own, etc., he couldn't do much for these friends of his on the democratic ticket just at the present writing; he could only have a friendly feeling on the basis that "Misery loves company."

Messrs. Ruiz, Duran, Peralta, Isaacson, Candelaria and Udall are out busy these days looking after the interests of the republican ticket.

It is an Oklahoma court clerk who is threatening to resign because the fees of his office are too large. Oklahoma is taking the place of Kansas as a fount of queer news.

Scoffers make light of John D. Rockefeller's religion, the same as they do of his oil.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Those marauding Ute Indians folded their tents and silently stole away when they heard that troops had been ordered after them. When it comes to stealing, silently or otherwise, they are hard to beat.—Deseret News.

United States Senator J. R. Burton, of Kansas, accompanied by his wife and niece, arrived this morning from his home at Abilene, and surrendered himself to begin serving his sentence of six months in the Ironton, Missouri jail.

Father Derichmont returned from Concho Thursday morning.

Mr. Robert Treoscher came in from Ganado last Saturday, where he has been for some time looking at the many interesting things to be seen there and in other parts of the Navajo Kingdom; coming as he does from the great Empire State, the Indian has many interesting characteristics for him to observe. He will spend the coming months in different parts of Arizona.

District Attorney and Mrs. George H. Crosby, Jr., are the happy parents of two little girls that came to their home last Sunday morning to bless their home. Our district attorney hardly touches the earth now as he goes to and from about his duties in our midst, and hardly keeps him mind off the twin babies at home.

TEN feet of snow in the Colorado mountains and the season not commenced yet. Now wait till a nice warm rain comes on and then watch what will happen down where the Southern Pacific railroad is trying to shoo the Colorado river out of the Salton sink.—Alb. Journal.

A Connecticut clergyman, says a writer in Lippincott's, while visiting friends once tucked his napkin into his collar to protect his clothing from the juice of the grape fruit at breakfast. He laughed as he did it and said it reminded him of a man he once knew who rushed into a restaurant and, seating himself at a table, proceeded to tuck his napkin under his chin. He then called a waiter and said, "Can I get luncheon here?"

"Yes" responded the waiter in a dignified manner, "but not a shampoo."

"What have you to say as to this charge that you kissed this girl?"

"I admit it, but there were extenuating circumstances."

"What were they?"

"She sat in my lap and threw her arms around my neck."—New York Press.

The quickest way to stop a man telling you how he would settle the troubles in Russia is to ask him to find Kieff on the map.

When a man hurts your feelings it is only added aggravation to know that next day he will be around to apologize.

Little things made a woman happy. Little thing make a man unhappy.

Some one had said that a woman has not intellect enough to be deterred by the impossibilities of things. Her forte is faith.

For the woman whose wedded life has been pure gold, no children can ever take her husband's place.

It is strange, but try to think of it: To other people our relatives are really lovable, admirable human beings!

A man may be as putty in the hands of a wise woman, but no wise woman wants to marry a putty man.
